

Australian Literature Festival at Sea

Find yourself captivated by award-winning authors, aspiring writers, and more, on this 5-night Australian Literature Voyage at Sea, sailing roundtrip from Sydney on board Queen Elizabeth.

Curated in partnership with Australia's oldest bookstore Dymocks, the Australian Literature Festival at Sea will see passionate readers and award-winning authors connect across five nights of literature, adventure, and relaxation, surrounded by stunning vistas of the Australian coastline.

Take part in thought-provoking talks with likeminded literature enthusiasts. Hear accomplished authors part ways with the secrets of their creative process. Finesse your own literary skills in hands-on workshops and interactive Q&As. And gain a fascinating glimpse into the art of storytelling, from celebrated writers who have taken the literature landscape by storm.

Transformative experiences that enrich the mind. Stimulating discussions that spark creativity. Author encounters that inspire everlasting memories. Take your love of the written word to the water and immerse yourself in five unforgettable nights on board the Australian Literature Festival at Sea.
