of the UK

Embark on a captivating journey that weaves together the stunning landscapes of Scotland and the vibrant pulse of London paired with a refined Queen Anne cruise.

Your holiday begins in Glasgow, where you'll spend a night before cruising the sparkling waters of Loch Lomond. Marvel at breathtaking mountain vistas and hear enchanting Scottish folk hero tales before hopping on board the legendary Jacobite Steam Train, crossing the iconic Glenfinnan Viaduct.

Next, in Edinburgh, you'll indulge in a whisky distillery tour, explore Edinburgh Castle and enjoy a private dinner on board the historic Royal Yacht Britannia, immersing yourself in the royal maritime history. After soaking in the picturesque Lake District, you'll head to London, visiting iconic landmarks including Buckingham Palace and savour a 14-night sailing with Cunard's newest ship, Queen Anne, visiting ports like Cobh and Reykjavík.
