Luxury Japan Voyage with Cherry Blossom Discovery

19 Night Fly, Cruise & Stay Holiday
DEPARTS 12 MARCH 2026

Immerse yourself in the cultures and landscapes of Japan and South Korea during three nights in Tokyo, a Mount Fuji tour and a Holland America Line Cruise.

Flying to Tokyo, you'll check in for a two-night hotel stay and relish an escorted tour of Mount Fuji as beautiful flowers bloom at its feet. Visit the Mount Fuji World Heritage Centre to unravel the volcano's fascinating history and admire the mountain from Lake Kawaguchi and Oishi Park before gliding back to Tokyo on the Shinkansen bullet train.

Your holiday then continues on board the striking Westerdam with a 14-night voyage. Set sail for the highlights of Japan, including Kochi, Kagoshima and Nagasaki. Cruising to South Korea, you'll enjoy a night in port near Seoul ahead of reaching the charming Busan, a cultural gem on the southern coast.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDES:

Mount Fuji More than 200,000 people climb the snow-capped summit of Mount Fuji every year. It's elegant shape has long been depicted in art and literature.

Bullet Train A triumph of high-speed rail, Japan's bullet trains connect Tokyo with most of the country's major cities. Departing on time to the second, these trains are a marvel of precision engineering, travelling at speeds of nearly 200 miles per hour and carrying an average of 420,000 passengers on a typical weekday.

Lake Kawaguchi Part of Japan's stunning Fuji Five Lakes, Lake Kawaguchi is famed for offering some of the most breathtaking views of Mount Fuji. Surrounded by rolling hills and lush forests, the lake's serene waters perfectly mirror the snow-capped peak on clear days, creating a picturesque scene that feels almost surreal.

Oishi Park Located on the northern shore of Lake Kawaguchi, Oishi Park offers stunning views of Mount Fuji. This beautifully landscaped park is famous for its vibrant flower displays, with colourful gardens changing throughout the year.
