Embark on the ultimate Cunard voyage with cruises on board Queen Anne, Queen Victoria and Queen Mary 2, culminating in New York with the 250th anniversary of American Independence.

Flying to London and transferring to Southampton for a 2-night hotel stay, your first Cunard cruise will take you to the fjords of Norway on board the newest member of the fleet, Queen Anne. Marvel at towering cliffs and charming villages as you sail through tranquil waters before disembarking in Southampton and transferring for back-to-back hotel stays in London and Mestre. You'll then explore the glistening Mediterranean on board Queen Victoria, from ancient Dubrovnik to the beaches of Ibiza.

Following hotel stays in Barcelona and London, you'll make the iconic transatlantic crossing from Southampton to New York on board Queen Mary 2. Here, you'll experience the party of a lifetime as America celebrates its 250th birthday on Independence Day.
