Rare cultural heritage, majestic landscapes, and the timeless elegance of Cunard define this exceptional journey, crowned by a performance of the Sordevolo Passion Play – one of Italy's most extraordinary living traditions.

Staged only once every five years, the Passion Play of Sordevolo is one of Europe's most inspiring theatrical traditions. In a vast open-air theatre at the foothills of the Italian Alps, hundreds of villagers bring this powerful story to life through dramatic staging, elaborate costumes and centuries-old devotion. With exclusive backstage access, gain a rare insight into the craftsmanship, preparation, and community spirit that make this spectacle remarkable.

Beyond this event, the refined beauty of Northern Italy unfolds. Stay on the tranquil shores of Lake Maggiore, explore the celebrated lakes of Como and Garda, and journey on board the famed Centovalli Railway before embarking on an elegant Mediterranean voyage on board Queen Elizabeth.

The 2027 Sordevolo Passion Play is one of Europe's most extraordinary cultural spectacles. More than 400 local residents take part, performing in a vast amphitheatre with elaborate sets and costumes.
