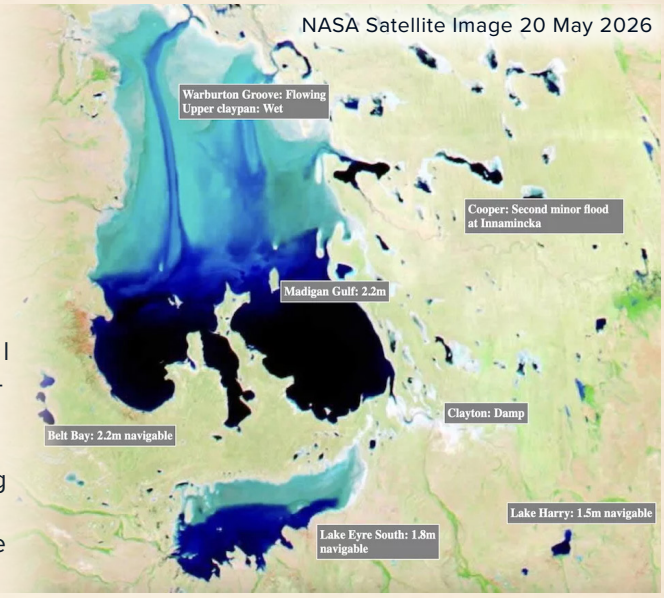
Witness the transformation of Australia's outback

KATI THANDA - LAKE EYRE IN FLOOD



It's official — 2026 will bring one of Australia's rarest natural spectacles.

Exceptional rainfall across Queensland's outback are sending vast volumes of water south, creating the potential for one of the most significant flood events at Kati Thanda-Lake Eyre in decades.

From the air, this spectacle is nothing short of breathtaking — endless desert plains giving way to vast shimmering waters, birdlife returning in extraordinary numbers, and the outback bursting into life in a way few ever get to witness.

This exclusive Air Cruise has been designed to place you right at the heart of this rare event.

Enjoy time on the Eyre Peninsula, soaking up Port Lincoln and Coffin Bay's coastal beauty and renowned seafood, before heading inland over the Flinders Ranges to Coober Pedy for a truly unique outback experience. The journey culminates in a breathtaking scenic flight over Kati Thanda–Lake Eyre, followed by a stop in Birdsville for a truly iconic outback lunch.

THIS IS MORE THAN A JOURNEY.

IT'S A ONCE IN A LIFETIME EXPERIENCE.

DAY 1 Thursday 15 October
Brisbane - Adelaide - Port Lincoln - Coffin Bay

Pristine Coastlines and World-Class Seafood

Your journey begins with a commercial flight from Brisbane to Adelaide, where your privately chartered aircraft awaits. From here, continue to the coastal haven of Port Lincoln, arriving in the afternoon and transferring directly to your accommodation. Later, venture out for a memorable experience in Coffin Bay. Here, enjoy a premium hosted dinner experience at Coffin Bay Spirits, where the region's renowned seafood is paired with exceptional local flavours—an elegant introduction to the Eyre Peninsula's celebrated culinary scene. Return to Port Lincoln for your overnight stay.

Overnight: Port Lincoln Hotel

DAY 2 Friday 16 October
Port Lincoln

Coastal Elegance

Enjoy a relaxed breakfast before setting out to explore the striking landscapes of the Eyre Peninsula. Morning touring showcases rugged coastlines, turquoise waters and the region's rich maritime heritage, with time to enjoy lunch at leisure. We recommend Café Del Giorno – a casual Italian eatery with a seafood focus, offering street seating with views of the sea. In the afternoon, experience the Eyre Peninsula from the water on a signature Seafood Bay cruise. Cruise through sheltered bays while sampling the freshest local seafood, with opportunities to spot playful sea lions and other marine life along the way. Return to Port Lincoln in the late afternoon, with the evening at leisure.

Overnight: Port Lincoln Hotel

DAY 3 Saturday 17 October
Port Lincoln - Coober Pedy

From Coast to Outback

After breakfast, depart Port Lincoln on a spectacular inland journey, travelling by private charter flight over the ancient and dramatic landscapes of the Flinders Ranges. From the air, the shifting colours and rugged formations reveal the timeless beauty of South Australia's outback. Arrive in Coober Pedy, the opal capital of the world, where life unfolds beneath the surface. After time to relax or enjoy lunch at leisure, venture out to the remarkable Breakaways Reserve. Here, vast desert plains and sculpted rock formations create a surreal setting for a sunset experience, accompanied by a curated platter. Return to your hotel for dinner and an overnight stay in this extraordinary underground town.

Included Meals: B/D

Overnight: Desert Cave Hotel, Coober Pedy

DAY 4 Sunday 18 October
Coober Pedy - Kati Thanda-Lake Eyre - Birdsville - Adelaide - Brisbane

Australia's Inland Sea – A Rare Natural Spectacle

This morning, gain insight into Coober Pedy's unique underground lifestyle and opal mining heritage before rejoining your aircraft for the highlight of your journey. Take to the skies for an unforgettable scenic flight over Kati Thanda–Lake Eyre in flood—a rare and awe-inspiring phenomenon. Normally a vast salt pan, the lake has been transformed into a shimmering inland sea, where channels of water stretch to the horizon and ever-changing hues of silver, blue and soft pink reflect the sky. From above, we witness one of Australia's most extraordinary natural events, a spectacle few have the privilege to experience. Continue onward to the iconic outback township of Birdsville, arriving in time for lunch at the legendary Birdsville Hotel—a fitting and atmospheric finale. Mid-afternoon, depart Birdsville aboard your privately chartered aircraft for Adelaide. Upon arrival, connect with your commercial flight to Brisbane, bringing to a close an exceptional journey of contrasts—from coastal luxury to the dramatic heart of Australia.
